FAQ'S

What does boujee mean?

An abbreviation of the French "bourgeois." A term used to describe people, things, and places that are definitively high-class.

What set up items are included in the package?

All our packages include menu items on ceramic plates and bowls that will be set on a variety of plinths (in your choice of white or black) and display stands with serving-ware and utensils. All items will be garnished with seasonal herbs, fruit and flowers. Package price includes set up and pack down of your station within a 20km radius of Brisbane CBD.

What florals are included?

Seasonal flowers will be selected for you in your choice of PASTEL or BIGHT colours. You are unable to select types of flowers, if you have other preferences for a colour palette please ask.

Do you cater for dietary requirements?

We sure do! Please advise us how many guests you have attending your events that have allergies and we will ensure they are catered for. Should more than 10% of your attendees have dietary requirements, a surcharge may be applicable. Our team will help you create a suitable menu for all your guests if this is the case.

Do you have a child friendly menu?

Yes, we cater for children as well! Our team will send you child friendly menu options - such as mini hot dogs, sandwiches - fairy bread! We can discuss how to incorporate this into your package either as an add on, or substituting some of the other items.

How much of each item will guests receive?

We work on a 40-60% ratio of each item per person to ensure there is adequate variety and a sufficient amount of food for your guests. We boujee promise no one will go home hungry.

How long does the station stay set up for?

Your boujee station will be packed down by one of our team members after a 2-3 hour duration from when guest arrival is. We will liaise with you regarding logistics for this and what works best for you.

Will you need access to a kitchen?

We require access to a kitchen for Package Two and Boujee Babe. If you opt for Package One, we can set this up at your chosen location without having access to a kitchen onsite.
